

Exam questions

Multiple-choice questions

1. The following statements relate to key influences. Decide which combinations are correct.

(a) Statement 1: A key influence impacting on participation, associated with resources, is location.

Statement 2: A key influence impacting on participation, associated with resources, is peer pressure.

- A Both statements are true
- B Statement 1 is true, Statement 2 is false
- C Statement 1 is false, Statement 2 is true
- D Both statements are false

(1)

(b) Statement 1: A key influence impacting on participation, associated with the image of an activity, is fashion.

Statement 2: A key influence impacting on participation, associated with the image of an activity, is media coverage.

- A Both statements are true
- B Statement 1 is true, Statement 2 is false
- C Statement 1 is false, Statement 2 is true
- D Both statements are false

(1)

(c) Statement 1: A key influence impacting on participation, associated with people, is socio-economic status.

Statement 2: A key influence impacting on participation, associated with people, is family.

- A Both statements are true
- B Statement 1 is true, Statement 2 is false

C Statement 1 is false, Statement 2 is true

D Both statements are false

(1)

2. The availability of resources can influence participation. Which of the following best describes this category?

A Public transport, family influences, facilities in the locality, time available

B Facilities in the locality, road links, role model influence, time available

C Road links, public transport, facilities in the locality, time available

D Time available, road links, public transport, cost of the activity

Short-answer questions

3. There are many influences impacting on involvement in physical activity. Name two influences that are linked with cultural factors.

(2)

4. Give the name of a terrestrial television broadcaster.

(1)

5. What is the name for programmes that can be bought by viewers from satellite companies as a one-off event?

(1)

Longer-answer questions

6. People start taking part in physical activity at different stages of life. For example, a retired person may take up physical activity late in life.

Make a detailed list of the key factors that can impact on an individual's participation in sport.

(6)

7. What difficulties may a disabled person encounter when participating in sport?

(4)